The old Jerry McAuley mission, founded in 1872 by the late Jerry McAuley, is to have a new building, provided, of course, the necessary will be taken provided, of course, the necessary $100,000 can be raised. A special appeal is being made to all interested in rescue work to respond to this great need.

As an institution the McAuley mission, for it is no doubt as to public sentiment. In a number of the states, senations are practically named now by popular vote, through primary election laws; and that perhaps two-thirds of the senate can talk any measure to death, especially almost unanimous vote of committee.

By Leased Wire to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—No event of the month has engaged the attention of society more than the charity ball which will be given at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel next Tuesday night. Not so many society leaders have left the city as have usually gone at this period, and others who have often spent the whole winter abroad have remained in New York to take greater part in the social gayeties. With the possible exception of the tableaux hungry and was shaking the earth in his anger. Thereupon they collected a number of caives and goats and drova them into a cave, where the devil was supposed to be dwelling. After this they set fire to the forest in two places to drive out the devil living there.

Despite the efforts to make it appear form only from a severe cold, it is no secret that his majesty's condition is considered really grave, as I have already pointed out in these letters.

It is known that both the German emperor and the Russian czar have given very explicit orders to their representatives here that they are to be kept constantly informed as to the condition of the aged emperor. A marriage of interest during th week was that of Miss Dorothea Curtiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wil liam Howard Curtiss of Summit, N. J., to Arthur Duedney Pratt, son of Mrs. Nathaniel Pratt of Brooklyn. The wedding was in Grace church, New York, and was very largely attended. New York friends attended the marringe of Miss Grace Kellen, daughter of Mrs. William Vial Kellen of Boston, to Paul Hermen Creel of Louisville.
The wedding took place at Trinity

EARTHQUAKE DEVIL

Superstitious Hungarian Peasants Also Burn Forest to Scare Satan Away.

BY EMIL ANDRASSY. Special Cable to The Tribune.

VIENNA, Jan. 28 .- In many country districts in Hungary superstition is still rife. Evidence of this comes from Grosswardein. In the communities of Vaskeh and Baresd severe earthquake shocks were experienced, and in the former place the church bells were started ringing. A 'witch" living in the neighborhood persuaded the peasants that the devil was hungry and was shaking the earth in his tives here that they are to be kept constantly informed as to the condition of the aged emperor.

It is regarded as unfortunate that the heir apparent should have stirred up Hungary at this time, as there is reason to fear that when the emperor is taken there will be trouble enough keeping the empire from flying apart. In official quarters it is declared that the emperor's health has so far improved that the catarrh from which he has suffered is abaiting. The doctors state with satisfaction that his majesty is free from fever and that he even works as usual.

A personage in the entourage of the emperor says that the chill was contracted through driving in an open carriage. This official expressed regret that the emperor refuses to take that personal care of his health which is so essential to a man of his advanced age. For example, he was present recently at the consecration of a new church at Neubau, and heard mass with his head uncovered. This church, a week before opening, had no windows and the building was not yet dry. It seems possible that his majesty caught a chill on that occasion.

The Nicolls are collateral descendants of Sir Richard Nicoli, the first English governor of New York. Mr. Benjamin Nicoll is one of the older sports lovers who have done much to make polo popular in this country. When Miss Elsie Nicoll made her debut her bouquets were placed in the silver cups won by her father.

The engagement is announced of Miss Rosalie Thompson of Louisville, Ky., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Warriner Thompson, to Harold C. Washburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Washburn of this city. Mr. Washburn was graduated from Harvard in the class of 1906, and is now an instructor at the United States naval academy. Herbert L. Satterlee, son-in-law of J. Electra Vita is a scientific device for saturating the human body with a powerful but roothing current of electric life, for hours at a time, without the least shock or unpleasant sensation. It generates a constant, unbroken stream of electricity, which it sends coursing through every nerve and tissue of the body, restoring vitality and strength and giving every weak or inactive organ the power to do its work as nature intended. When your body has sufficient electric energy to satisfy the demands of nature, weakness and disease cannot exist.

Men who are nervous, run down, weak and unambitious will find that electricity, as supplied by Electra Vita, will quickly put them in good condition.
